victim wonders why he should be so weak, why his food gives him no strength, why his blood should be so thin.

Mr. Alex. Carter of Van Buren, Carter Co., Mo., says: "I had been troubled with dyspepsia and indigestion since 1879. The best physicians in the country could do no good."

I visited the Mulanphy hospital in St. Louis and received no benefit. The attending physician told me I had narrowing of the outlet of the stomach, and the only remedy was to have it cut out, which I refused to have done. I then visited West Baden, Ind.; Las Vegas Hot Springs, New Mexico; Sweet Springs, Mo., and Monticello, Col. I also took a great many different kinds of medicine recommended for dyspepsia, but found no relief. Last February I read a testimonial for Pe-ru-na in the Central Baptist that suited my case and I determined at once to try it. I have taken two bottles of Pe-ru-na and four of Man-a-lin, and I feel like a new man. None of my friends believed I would get well. I would not take any money for the good your remedies have done me."

In catarrh of the stomach, as well as in catarrh of any other part of the body, Pe-ru-na is the remedy. As it has often been said, if Pe-ru-na will cure catarrh of one part, it will cure catarrh of any other part of the body.

CLOSING RECITAL.

The Public Will Be Tendered an Interesting Program at The Irvington College.

Music, elocution and drills are the three principal features of the program of the Irvington college, which will be rendered under the auspices of Prof. E. C. Crabbe and Miss Clara Krall, Friday evening, June 15th. This is the closing recital of the school.

Miss Krall who has endeared herself to the people of Irvington and surrounding county, for her wonderful intellectual attainments as a reader, singer and pianist, will present in her delightful and tasteful way the "Last Day of Pompeii"—Scene—Arena—Gladius and the Lion.

Her rendition of German songs in that language have been commented on by eminent critics as having few equals, in both humor and tragedy.

A Frank Seltzer, of the U. S. Law Association says, "Miss Krall has gained an enviable reputation as an accomplished elocutionist, pianist and singer."

She has a sweet, mellow voice, with distinct articulation. Her gestures and poses are graceful and charming. Aside from these accomplishments she has a thorough conception of Delsartism.

J. C. Brashear, bridge superintendent of the "Henderson route" was in the city Friday.

Have Your Clothes Made By An Experienced Merchant Tailor.

A man never does appear neatly attired in a hand-me-down suit of clothes. It is an old fallacy to entertain the idea, that a suit of clothes or a pair of trousers can be had from a mercantile store which will have the same shape and fitting qualities as a garment purchased from a merchant tailor. In most cases the garment needs altering and this necessitates extra cost, consequently your suit does not fit comfortably and snugly
